Where do we start? Well some of you may remember this girl from our posts in 2021 of her breaking her skull while we were getting her ready for a show. She had got her horn wedged into a fence panel and pulled back. Well that all healed perfectly (check out our FB page for step by step instructions on how we did it) Then came 2022 and she got mounted by a large steer, injuring her back. Through all of this she has managed to continue
